Dear Prof. Buragohain,

As Governor of Nagaland, I am the Ex-Officio Chairman of the North East Zone Cultural Centre (NEZCC), Dimapur. The NEZCC conducts Cultural Exchange Programme for promotion and preservation of folk arts, Indigenous music, traditions, dance, customs, life style of the region in particular and other parts of the country in general. It provides a common platform to the artistes from the region for a meaningful interaction and to promote cultural and emotional integration amongst various communities. It also promotes our talent in handloom and handicrafts.

It would be our endeavour to bring as many as cultural teams/talents for spreading the rich culture of this region through NEZCC.

1. FREE REGISTRATION

As a part of this initiative, I would request all concerned to kindly get free registration of different cultural groups/talented individuals in the field of folk song, folk dance etc., under the NEZCC, Dimapur centre.

All these performing forms from our rural areas, tribal societies, schools, colleges, clubs and universities' teams are eligible to register their team & art form free of charge by completing a proforma available from Director, NEZCC, Dimapur.

NEZCC is a combined cultural forum for all our eight states of North East i.e., Assam, Arunachal, Nagaland, Meghalaya, Mizoram, Manipur, Tripura and Sikkim.

2. GURU SISHYA PARAMPARA

'Guru Sishya Parampara' is one of its schemes. It provides monthly scholarship to different individuals who are learning the traditional performing art under the Gurus. They may be from universities, rural or urban cities or from Satras.

3
